

The Knowledge

Supporting the National Curriculum

Ardleigh Green Learning Federation

To the Rescue!

EYFS

Working Together, Learning Together, Growing Together

Knowing More

Remembering More

Learning More

Key skills

- I can recognise my own personal superpowers and talk about my abilities.
- I can use my superpower of bravery when I am feeling nervous and give new things a try.
- I can use my powers of negotiation to solve smaller disagreements with my friends.
- My superpowers help me to know that I need to say sorry when I have upset someone or made a mistake.
- I know how to use my good behaviour powers to follow the school rules.
- I can use my powers of observation to find out about similarities and differences in materials and objects.
- I can carry out simple investigations and ask questions to help me find out about materials.
- I can talk about and pretend I am a superhero or a villain in a play situation.
- I can use my powers of imagination to create a storyline about superheroes and villains.
- I can create simple representations of superheroes and villains using a variety of media, materials and construction equipment.

Key Facts

- We all have our own individual superpowers that are unique.
- It is important to talk through disagreements to arrive at a solution that everyone is happy with.
- Following rules is important to keep everyone safe, happy and working cooperatively.
- Saying sorry is important because it means we can forgive each other and move on and still be good friends.
- Superheroes and Villains are found in storybooks and in movies.

Key Vocabulary

- Fictional. Not real , only in our imagination.
- Superhero - A fictional character with superhuman powers who uses these power to do good.
- Villain . A character responsible for causing problems, harm or damage.
- Superpowers. A special skill or ability that a person has.
- Bravery. To face things that you are scared of.
- Negotiate. To talk about a disagreement and arrive at

Test Yourself

- Who is your favourite superhero and why?
- Can you name a villain and what makes this character a villain?
- What is your superpower?
- Why is it important to say sorry sometimes?
- What does the word negotiate mean?
- Can you tell me about a time you were brave?
- Why are rules important?
- If you were a superhero how would you help someone?

Key texts

